PROPOSAL ON ITALIAN ARMY APPROVED

Military Commission Of Nation Peace Conference Accepts Limiting Provisions

ATE IS ELIMINATED

By ROBERT HEWITT
Sept. 3.—(P)—“Big” recommendations that the army, navy and air force limited to 397,500 men—only a fraction of war-time strength—approved unanimously today by the military commission of the nation peace conference.

Under the approved provisions, it is permitted to have an army of 200,000 (including 65,000 cavalry), a navy of 22,500 and an air force of 25,000.

It is barred from possession of aircraft carriers and her land air is restricted to 200 fighter reconnaissance planes with an original 150 transport and landing planes.

The military commission accepted the foreign ministers’ draft of the strength of the Carabinieri (state police) at 65,000. Yugoslavia withdrew an amendment to limit the force to 10,000.

Without debate the military commission adopted all but one of the limitation articles drafted by the Foreign Ministers Committee. One on Italian possession of aircraft carriers and submarines.

Approval of “Big Four” recommendations to limit the Italian army to two battalions, four tanks and four destroyers and actions on other smaller warships was delayed pending study of French amendment to qualify the wording of the treaty.

Seven years to the day since they erupted into World War I, the Italian army was reduced to the size of a garrison on the Baltic, the Italian peacekeepers in Paris were shepherded in debate over establishment of another free Trieste on the Adriatic.

Italy was made a free city by peace makers at Versailles in 1919. To give Poland a port. In that fashion, the idea in 1946 to make Trieste a port for Yugoslavia in payment of that country’s stand against the Nazis. Under the treaties now being debated by the 21-nation peace conference here, Trieste would be a way from Italy and made international zone controlled by United Nations, as Danzig protectorate under the League of Nations.

81 Killed In Hindu-Moslem Bombay Riots

Bombay, Sept. 3.—(P)—A communiqué said today that 81 persons had been killed and 270 injured since Sunday in violent Hindu-Moslem rioting in this teeming city, where new communal fights flared early this morning.

The city still simmered with the threat of widespread disturbances and strong forces of troops and police were on duty, following pre-dawn outbreaks in zones outside the area where a curfew was imposed yesterday.

Police were reported to have opened fire three times during the morning to quell outbreaks, with estimated casualties of 10 killed and 50 injured.

Bus traffic, which was suspended in all parts of Bombay last night, was resumed today in trouble-free sections, but a 48-hour curfew decreed at 5 a. m. yesterday in zones which have been the scene of disorders remained in effect.

After taking the oath of office yesterday as head of the new government, congress party President Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru pledged himself to govern the nation “for the Indians” and indicated he was considering a 10-year program to improve their lot.

At the same time, Mohandah K. Gandhi declared at a prayer meeting in New Delhi that the Congress Party “could never ally with Britain against the Moslems.”

Over 300 Die In Accidents Over Holidays

By the Associated Press
More than 300 persons suffered deaths as the nation celebrated its final extended holiday weekend of the summer.

Timebound vacationists and motorists jammed most of the country highways over the three-day Labor Day holiday and traffic fatalities surpassed the estimate by the National Safety Council.

At least 306 persons were killed, including 217 in traffic accidents.

The council had estimated persons would die from public accidents over the holiday week—including 210 in traffic accidents.

The 306 total compared with 361 deaths for the 1945 Labor Day holiday and 245 for Labor weekend in 1944.

In addition to the 217 traffic fatalities, there were 52 violent deaths from miscellaneous causes, and 37 persons drowned.

Only one state—North Dakota—reported no violent deaths. California led the states in violent deaths with 23, including 25 traffic fatalities. (Turn to Page Nine)

500,000 Children In State Return To Schools This Week

Pittsburgh, Sept. 3.—(P)—An estimated 1,500,000 children began returning to school in Pennsylvania today for courses of study ranging from the part they must as citizens of tomorrow.

Emphasis in all courses of study will be placed on citizenship training, as well as health, physical education, safety, and the superintendent of the department of public instruction.

Current events, he added, will be given increasing attention as a result of world war and the peace that is to be wrought.

Enrollment is expected to increase slightly in the state’s 11,000 schools, with most of the gain in the first grades and high school.

Carl D. Morneweck, chief of the child accounting division of the department of public instruction, said birth records indicate there probably will be 3,600 more youngsters entering public and private schools than in 1945.

High school enrollments will be boosted, he added, by former students returning from jobs they obtained during the war.

A shortage of teachers still exists in many schools, particularly in the rural districts. Dr. Henry Klonow, director of teacher education, said the number of teachers had declined to about 19,000 this year, including those holding special wartime emergency certificates.

New school buildings costing between $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 also are needed in parts of the state but high prices make their construction impractical now, an official said.

Jet Champ

Col. Leon Gray waves happily from the cockpit of his jet Army P-80 after landing at Cleveland airport to complete flight from Van Nuys, Calif., in four hours, nine minutes and 3 seconds, an average speed of 493 miles per hour. He flew in the jet-propelled section of the Bendix event in National Air Races.

COUNCIL WILL HEAR CHARGES OF UKRAINIAN

Minister Waits With Two Suitcases Of Documents To Support Charges Against Greece

SPENDS BUSY HOLIDAY

Lake Success, N. Y., Sept. 3.—(P)—Dmitri Manuilsky, foreign minister of the Soviet Ukraine, waited with two suitcases of documents today for the United Nations Security Council to decide whether to hear immediately his charges against the Greek government.

The council was called to convene at 4 p. m. to take up again its debate on granting Manuilsky’s charges a place on the agenda.

Manuilsky and his staff kept busy over the Labor Day holiday while most of the delegations on the Security Council relaxed at the national tennis championships at Forest Hills.

Manuilsky must forego a holiday again today. This is V-J Day in Russia, officially decreed as a holiday for all of the Soviet.

The Ukrainian official, who declared at a news conference last Friday that the Security Council must concern itself with the Greek plebiscite, had no comment today on the results of the voting, in which King George II won the decision. Manuilsky said he would comment before the Council if given an opportunity; if not he would call another news conference.

On Aug. 24, Manuilsky filed charges with the United Nations that the Greek government-aided British troops in Greece-Albanian border and is persecuting national minorities, in Macedonia, Thrace and Epirus.

Methodists Hold Annual Meeting

Meadville, Sept. 3.—(P)—Architect’s plans for enlarging the Ida M. Cribbs home for the aged at Conneautville were submitted today to the opening of the annual meeting of the Erie Methodist conference.

More than 300 clergy and lay delegates attended the session, presided over by Bishop James M. Straughn of Pittsburgh.

Business meetings were scheduled this afternoon by the conference board, the board on ministerial training, and committees on ministerial qualifications and conference relations. The board on ministerial training and committees on ministerial qualifications and conference relations. The board on ministerial training and committees on ministerial qualifications and conference relations.

On Sunday afternoon the six-day sessions will conclude with ordination services, a sermon by Bishop Straughn, and the reading of appointments for the coming year.

Major Parties In New York Believed Agreed On Tickets

By the Associated Press
New York Republicans and Democrats, apparently pretty well agreed in advance on their tickets, gathered in nominating conventions today, while South Carolina and Nevada held primaries.

In the Empire State, the line-up for the gubernatorial race, once the conventions get through the formalities, appeared certain to be Governor Thomas E. Dewey, Republican incumbent, versus Senator James M. Mead.

The prospective senatorial nominees were less assured, but pre-convention jockeying apparently had put Assembly Leader Irving M. Laves out in front for the Republican nomination, with former Governor Herbert H. Lehman expected to get the Democratic nod.

The actual nominations will not come until tomorrow.

In South Carolina, the primary is a run-off race between two World War II veterans for the Democratic nomination as governor—equivalent to election in that state. They are J. Strom Thurmond and Dr. James C. McLeod, who topped an 11-man field in the Aug. 13 primary. The campaign developed no clear-cut issues. (Turn to Page Nine)

Drowning Victim Known In Warren

One holiday tragedy occurred Sunday morning on Lake Chautauque, when Stanley Gay, 22, of 1112 West Third Street, Jamestown, N. Y., was drowned while sailing with his father-in-law, Earl E. Zahn. They were staying at the Zahn’s summer home at Woodlawn on the lake.

The sailing accident happened Sunday about noon off Long Point on the Bemus side of the lake. The man was drowned in forty feet of water, and his body was not recovered until four o’clock yesterday afternoon.

Well known in Warren, young Gay was the son of Ralph F. Gay, of Erie, and the late Della Olinstead Gay. He was a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Earle R. Morrison.

She’s Not Afraid Now

Janice Elizabeth Hansel, 7, is back in her Des Moines, Iowa, home now, and she’s “not afraid to die.” Suffering from several maladies which physicians say may result in her death soon, Janice spent months in a hospital. But she was lonesome and asked to be returned home. Now she can only lie in her bed and play with her dolls, but she’s happy while she awaits the end.

Employees Of Duquesne To Vote Tonight

Pittsburgh, Sept. 3.—(P)—A threatened power strike which would cripple the highly industrialized Pittsburgh metropolitan area, hinged today on the outcome of a mass meeting of Duquesne employees and last-hour mediation efforts directed by Mayor David I. Lawrence.

These were the developments:

1. The light company was to present a new series of counter proposals to the independent association of Employees of Duquesne Light and Associated companies.

2. The 3,500 employees of Duquesne Light were to meet at 8:15 (E. D. T.) tonight in Carnegie hall to vote whether or not to carry out the strike threat.

The light company’s offer was to be presented at today’s resumption of contract negotiations scheduled by Mayor Lawrence in an effort to reach an agreement before the mass meeting vote.

Notice of intent to strike filed by the union expired last Saturday.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 3.—(P)—A 39-year-old Pittsburgh editor and former clergyman threatens to file criminal proceedings against the Duquesne Light Co. and an independent employees’ union if the contract negotiations fail.

KANE HOTEL MAN DIES

Kane, Sept. 3.—(P)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for John Fleming, 97, hotel operator here for more than half a century. Fleming died yesterday of complications resulting from old age. He was active in business until last year when he sold the New Thomson Hotel—now the Kane Hotel.

Change In Price of the Times-Mirror

Starting September 1st the price of the Times-Mirror will be 5 cents for a single copy. This announcement is made reluctantly and is forced by circumstances beyond our control due to vastly increased cost of production in all departments of the newspaper, making a price adjustment necessary. The greatest single item of increase has been in the cost of newsprint paper, this having increased nearly 50%. Labor has also shown a sharp increase during and after the war. Four raises have been made by the paper manufacturer in the past six months. The price increase of the Times-Mirror has been considered for the past several months but was deferred in the hope that it might be avoided. Recent developments have made further delay impossible. Part of the increase will go to those who sell and deliver the Times-Mirror.

The new rates are as follows:

Single copy 5c.

By carrier 75c per month; $2.25 three months; $4.50 six months; $9.00 per year.

By mail in first and second zone 50c per month; $1.50 three months; $3.00 six months; $6.00 per year.

All other zones 75c per month; $2.25 three months; $4.50 six months; $9.00 per year.

Practically every paper in the country has been forced to make price adjustments in the past few months. Following are the rates charged by papers in nearby towns: Corry Journal $12.48 per year by carrier, $7.00 by mail. Erie Daily Times by carrier $12.48 per year, by mail, except a few counties adjoining Erie, $12.00 per year. Oil City Derrick by carrier $13.00 per year, by mail within 50 miles of Oil City $7.00 per year. All other mail subscriptions $15.00 per year. St. Marys Daily Press by carrier $12.48 per year, by mail $5.00 per year. Meadville Tribune-Republican, $12.48 per year, by mail outside local zones $9.00 per year. DuBois Courier-Express by carrier $12.48 per year, by mail outside local zones $9.00 per year. Ridgway Record $12.48 per year, by mail $9.00 per year. Titusville Herald $12.48 per year by carrier. Bradford Era 5c per copy. Erie Dispatch-Herald $12.48 by carrier, by mail outside local zones $12.00 per year. Kane Republican $15.60 per year by carrier, outside 1st and second zones $9.50 per year. Jamestown Post-Journal by carrier $12.48 per year.

WARNING IS SOUNDED IN NELSON BOOK

Former War Production Board Chairman Calls Upon Nation To Be On Guard

LESSON TAUGHT CLEAR

Situation Is Discussed At White House

Washington, Sept. 3.—(P)—Donald M. Nelson hoisted a warning today for the nation to be on guard, “not only in war, but in peace,” against widening military influence.

In his book, “Arsenal of Democracy,” the former War Production Board chairman declares that the army largely “took control” of the civilian economy in 1944, after trying throughout the war to wrest that authority from him.

Henceforth, Nelson wrote, the army will cease to be a neglected step-child in peacetime and will become “one of the most important and influential branches of our government.”

“The lesson taught by these recent years of war is clear,” he continued. “Our whole economic and social system will be in peril if it is controlled by the military men.”

Nelson took note of the widely advertised “production crisis” of 1944, declaring that it was spurious, but served to “divert attention from the army’s own miscalculations.”

“The record shows,” he wrote, “that in not a single instance—after the critical early period of 1942—did an American fighting man at the front have to go without munitions because of any failure in production.”

The attempt was thwarted, Nelson said, to create a contrary impression, was one of the most dangerous bits of double talk I ever heard of.

Nelson contended that the heads of the army and navy joined with James F. Byrnes, then war mobilization director, to remove him as WPE chairman in 1943 and replace him with Bernard M. Baruch.

The attempt was thwarted, Nelson said, when he got wind of the plan and promptly dismissed Ferdinand Eberstadt, a WPE vice chairman who favored the army’s view and who was to have become Baruch’s deputy.

Collaborating in the ouster effort, Nelson wrote, were Secretary of War Stimson, the late Secretary of the Navy Knox, and the then Undersecretaries Robert P. Patterson and James V. Forrestal. They had drawn a letter naming Baruch as Nelson’s successor and planned to ask Mr. Roosevelt to sign it “that very day,” Nelson said.

There was no immediate comment from any of those Nelson named.

King George Now Ready To End Exile

London, Sept. 3.—(P)—King George II of Greece, described by a confidant as “a very happy man” today, intends to return to Athens in two or three weeks, a government spokesman said, thus ending his second exile since 1924.

The returns from St. Jago’s plebiscite on the monarch’s return to his throne were still running at better than two to one for King George and dispatches from Paris said Premier Constantine Tsaldaris of Greece, now attending the peace conference, might confer with the king today or tomorrow.

The conservative Daily Telegraph called the result of the balloting a rebuff to Russia and Communist “autocracy.”

Stamp 51 Now Good For 5 Pounds Sugar

Washington, Sept. 3.—(P)—Stamp 51 in ration book No. 4 is good for five pounds of sugar through December 31, if the grocer has the sugar, OPA reminded housewives today.

The stamp became valid Sunday.

On that day also stamp 49 was supposed to expire, but because of sugar shortages in many cities, OPA extended its validity through September 30 so that consumers may cash it.

Stamps 9 and 10 are each good through October 31 for five pounds of home canning sugar.

Summary Of National Air Race Records

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—(P)—New records were the order at the post-war revival of the national air races which ended late yesterday in a burst of speed by both jet planes and “old fashioned” propeller driven racers. Here is a quick summary of the results:

Bendix cross-country dash of 2,045 miles from Van Nuys, Calif., to Cleveland won by Paul Mantz of Burbank, Calif., in a North American P-51 Mustang with an average speed of 435.5 miles an hour. The old record was 282 MPH set by Frank Fuller in 1939.

Jet division of the Bendix race won by Col. Leon Gray of Casa Grande, Ariz., with an average of 494.7 miles an hour, an original record. Gray flew a Lockheed P-80 Shooting Star.

Hallie trophy race for women pilots at 75 miles over a 15-mile triangular course won by Margaret Hubert of Painesville, Ohio, in a North American AT-5 Texan with an average of 265 miles an hour, an original record.

Sohio trophy race at 210 miles around a 30-mile rectangular course won by Dale Fulton of Alexandria, Va., in a P-51 with an average of 352.7 miles an hour. It was a new event.

Weatherhead service jet speed dashes over a one-mile straightaway course won by Lt. William J. Reilly of San Francisco in a P-80 with a speed of 378.3 miles an hour. A new event.

Jet division of the Thompson trophy race for military pilots won by Maj. Gus Lundquist of Chicago in a P-80 with an average speed of 315 miles an hour for 180 miles around the 30-mile course. A new event.

Thompson trophy race at 300 miles around the 30-mile course won by Alvin (Tex) Johnston of Niagara Falls, N. Y., in a P-39 with an average speed of 373.9 miles an hour. The old record was 283 miles an hour set by Roscoe Turner in 1935.

Prize money for those events totaled $110,000, including the $25,000 in the Weatherhead jet event which will go to the Army Air Forces and Society because military pilots cannot accept cash awards.

Five Fatalities In West Pennsylvania

Pittsburgh, Sept. 3.—(P)—Five persons lost their lives in west Pennsylvania on streets and highways crowded with Labor Day holiday traffic.

Two of the fatalities were in the Pittsburgh district, two in Erie county and one in Crawford county.

The victims were Stephen Buran, 50, of Leetsdale, killed by a truck as he stepped from a curb near his home; Elmond Gornic, 25, of McKees Rocks, who died of injuries suffered in a traffic accident; Albert Gronlee, 72, a resident of the Crawford County Home, who was struck by a truck in Saegertown; August Schwartz, 68, 87, Erie, killed near Westerville when he was hit by a car; and Mrs. Susan Brown, of Erie, widowed rooming house keeper, who died in a head-on collision involving three cars on Route 20 near North East.

SITUATION IS DISCUSSED AT WHITE HOUSE

Undersecretary of State Unexpectedly Calls Off Scheduled News Conference

NOTES ARE RECEIVED

BULLETIN

Boston, Sept. 3.—(P)—A demand that the Yugoslav who shot down American airmen be brought to trial before an international tribunal has been drafted by the powerful relations committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was learned today.

Washington, Sept. 3.—(P)—The state department today cancelled a news conference at which Undersecretary William L. Clayton had intended to discuss developments in the dispute with Yugoslavia over the forced crashes of two American planes.

Clayton’s conference was called off suddenly after he had been summoned to the White House for an 11 a. m. conference with President Truman. Clayton is acting secretary of state in the absence of Secretary Byrnes and Undersecretary Dean Acheson.

Lincoln White, department press officer, scheduled an early afternoon conference to replace that of Clayton and promised to try to have an announcement on the Yugoslav situation at that time.

Government officials said yesterday the situation appeared headed for a diplomatically satisfactory conclusion. It has developed that there were two recent dispatches from Belgrade.

The first of these said the U. S. embassy had received a new note Sunday from Marshal Tito which “roughly meets” American demands for an official apology and assurances that the plane incidents—which cost five American lives—would not recur.

Later Belgrade reports said the Yugoslav embassy in Washington had delivered a note at the state department Friday. The embassy here confirmed this. This note asked for a guarantee that no more American planes would fly over Yugoslavia without permission, and added that the Yugoslav government could not bear “any responsibility” for the two crashes.

Earlier, department officials had told newsmen it is “good speculation” that the first Belgrade dispatch—saying American demands had virtually been fulfilled—was correct.

Such an ending, officials said, might have the additional effect of lessening the current tension between the United States and Russia.

Undersecretary of State William L. Clayton scheduled a late-morning news conference with the announced intention of issuing a statement on the Yugoslav matter.

Officials who should know told a reporter it was “good speculation” that Clayton—heading the state department in the absence of both Secretary Byrnes and Undersecretary Dean Acheson—would announce a new note from Yugoslavia’s Marshal Tito, containing:

1. An official apology for the incidents, one of which cost five American lives.

2. Assurances that they would not be repeated.

The two army transport planes, reportedly of course 60 miles of bad weather, crashed in Yugoslavia August 9 and 19 after being fired upon by Yugoslav fighters.

Belgrade, Sept. 3.—(P)—Belgrade newspapers printed today a note which the Yugoslav government delivered to the U. S. State Department at Washington Aug. 30 guaranteeing that no more American planes would fly over Yugoslavia and cutting new instances of such flights.

Streamline Trolleys Figure In Collision

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—(P)—Collision of two streamlined trolleys last night injured six persons, many of them returning from their holiday weekend.

With both cars jammed to capacity, the crash catapulted passengers from their seats, wrenching backs, twisting legs and turning both trolleys into scenes of confusion.

Women and children began sobbing for help and motorists stopped at the 13th street and Erie avenue scene to help the injured from the trolleys. The 60 persons hurt were lined up on the curb or on nearby lawns to await transportation to Temple University Hospital by 20 police radio cars.

VENANGO SUICIDE

Kennedell, Sept. 3.—(P)—Placing a .32 caliber revolver in his eyes, Edward Gusnetovic, 20, killed himself at his home near this Allegheny river community yesterday. Dr. T. S. Gabreski reported. Dr. Gabreski, deputy coroner of Venango county, said the youth’s body was found in his bed by Roy McMillan, owner of the house, about six hours after the death occurred.

William and Charles DeForest of this city, left early yesterday for East Orange, N. J., called there by a message stating that Mr. and Mrs. David Ball DeForest formerly of this city, had been injured in an automobile accident in which the car in which they were riding was completely demolished.

According to meagre information received here the crash occurred Sunday morning about 9:30 o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. DeForest were enroute to visit relatives in Bayonne, N. J. The message stated that a minister enroute to church drove his automobile into the DeForest car with force enough to cause it to roll over.

Both occupants of the DeForest machine were taken to East Orange General Hospital. Mr. DeForest was discharged after being treated. The extent of the injuries to Mrs. DeForest has not been learned here, but she is not considered critical.

MRS. ALMENA BARTON

Hull, of West Main street, Youngsville, where Mrs. Barton had been a guest on her trip north from Florida and which she left when illness made hospital treatment necessary, in both Jamestown, N. Y. and Warren.

Jack was assisted in the service by the present Youngsville Methodist pastor, Rev. E. W. Chitester, who lead in prayer.

Her early life was spent in Warren where she was associated with her mother, Charles, in the photographic art gallery. She came to Youngsville in 1898 as the bride of Millard F. Barton. She was prominent in the Methodist church and its organizations and her interest in the church continued after she went to St. Petersburg to live with a daughter.

Deflated Tire Blamed For Corry Crash

Corry Journal: A man and his wife were admitted to the Corry Hospital early Saturday morning suffering from injuries incurred when their car was involved in an accident with another machine at 12 o'clock midnight Friday night on Columbus avenue. Total damage to both machines amounted to approximately $300. Pvt. Krupa of the Corry barracks of the State Police said.

The accident is believed to have developed when the front tire of the machine, operated by Lloyd Sherlock, of 517 Euclid street, went flat and caused the vehicle to swerve across the highway and into the path of an automobile driven by William May, of RD 1, Bear Lake. While the investigation of the accident is not complete, it is believed the deflated tire caused the collision.

May was found to have broken his wrist in the crash and his wife, Mabel, was suffering from lacerations of the head which occurred when she was thrown against the glass of the windshield. Sherlock was not injured.

Hospital attendants said that a more extensive examination including x-ray will be made of Mrs. May to determine other injuries.

New Sidewalk to Be Laid at Playground

Sheffield, Aug. 30—Directors decided Monday night at their weekly meeting that a new cement sidewalk will be installed on the Main Street side of the playground area within the next two to three weeks. Completion of the sidewalk depends on when equipment and materials for the purchase can be secured. The old sidewalk will be left in until final arrangements are made that the public will suffer little inconvenience during the installation. In conjunction with the new sidewalk it is noticeable that the association will have for sale the following equipment: 34 8 in. eye screws 16 ft. long, and 72 ties, 72 in. way ties, 144 nipples 15 in. g., 144 joints of pipe 7 ft. 9 in. g., and 72 flanges all of which are 2 in. pipe and accessories. In addition there will be several common tools, this equipment will be available on or about September 1st. The new cement walk should be completed by then, thus making the old of little use to the association.

THE MATERNAL INSTINCT

By Dorothy Staley

Chapter 3
LILLIE couldn't remember when or how she had decided that Violet was meant to be a lady, just as she couldn't remember when or how she had decided on a number of things. That some things were going to be easier or more than others wouldn't be an endless counting of money, he worried adding and subtracting with the stub of a pencil on a note pad. That there wouldn't be any collectors at the door, nice pleasant men who took twenty-five cents a week on the kitchen table. Violet's crib, and who would kindle at first when Lillie told her to the door, to say there was a money that week and who after the weeks passed, turned away with a grim, worried look of their own. She didn't know how these things would be accomplished, but she knew that they were going to come about as they should. That winter turned to spring and spring to summer. Some day, she, Lillie Posey, was going to have nice clothes and a nice house and lots of money, and above all, Violet was going to be a lady, a great lady, beautiful and kind, and people everywhere would love her. She couldn't explain it, she had never felt for her feeling for Violet.

By the time she was fourteen and ready to go to work, the feeling that Violet should have only the best had become a fixed obsession in her mind. In the last days that Lillie had to play "Sneaky Run" under the street light or Indiana and Cowboys among the rock strewn fields, Violet was at an age to tag along behind the bigger boys and girls, but Lillie would have none of it. Violet could be the captive white maiden to be rescued, perched securely on a high rock away from the rough and tumble playing that juvenile knew. She could be the fairy princess who rewarded the winner at Mumbly Peg. But she could not be a participant. She had said so, and no one ever questioned Lillie's authority, least of all Violet, who was sweet and mild and altogether a good child. Lillie walked the long bridge to Bradford City twice weekly to borrow books from the library there to read to Violet. Stories of Rose Red and Rose White, of Beauty and the Beast, and hundreds of others. Once the librarian had said, "Aren't you a rather big girl to be reading these stories?" Lillie had said, "Yes, ma'am," and extended her hand for the books, and then she was in her tone something that made the austere woman, three times her age, hesitate to say more.

After she went to work in the mill, Lillie had less time for reading to Violet, but now there was an extra dollar in the Posey household, and Moma even let Lillie keep a little of her weekly pay for herself. This she hoarded carefully, and each Sunday she walked across the bridge to Bradford City and spent the afternoon looking in the windows of the better stores at the kind of things she wanted for Violet, or walking up on the Hill and seeing what the children who lived there were wearing. If the weather was nice, she would put Violet in the stroller-cart and take her along. It took more than a year, to save the money for the plain blue reefer coat and the beaver hat she wanted for Violet and after she got them, she learned the lesson she wasn't to forget—that while Violet was indeed different from the other Poseys, that difference could be lost in associations.

When she took the hat and coat home, her mother had sighed, "Lillie, they're awful plain." But Lillie said, "It's what they're wearing on the Hill, Mom."

"Well," Mom said, "it cost an awful lot for something so plain. I like fancy things myself."

"So do I," said Lillie, "but then, Mom, we're not like Violet. We need the fancy stuff to deck us out, but not Violet. She needs nothing."

The next Sunday Lillie dressed Violet in her new clothes, and then looking at her decided that she would take her up to the church on the Hill in Bradford City, for Violet looked just like the children Lillie had seen going in there.

A man in striped trousers and a black coat, which made Lillie wonder how he had gotten so mixed up, smiled when the two came in and showed Lillie, without her asking, where to go. There were a number of other children, Violet's age there, and the two women in charge motioned Lillie to the back of the room and sat her with these children. Lillie felt as though her breast would burst. Violet looked just like all the others, only prettier, and when a third woman came in, Lillie heard her whisper, "What a pretty child. Who is she?"

The woman she spoke to shook her head, "I don't know. They came late. We will have to find out afterward."

When the class was over, the one woman took Violet by the hand and said, "You are a sweet little girl. 'Those little girls are you?"

Violet looked at her steadily and then turning, smiled at Lillie. She turned back and smiled up at the woman.

"Lillie," she answered, "How cute," and motioned for Lillie to join them. Then she said quietly, "For whom do you work, my dear? Whose child is she?"

"I don't work for anybody, ma'am," Lillie answered. "I work in the mill in Juteville. Violet is my sister."

The one woman said, "oh," rather flatly, and the other one raised her eyebrows in a way that in years to come was to be very familiar to Lillie. In that moment she knew with great clearness that Violet could never be all that she planned for her if she were to be marked indelibly as a Posey.

Never took Violet across the bridge again. Not ever after she moved across it to live in Bradford City for the rest of her life.

Three From Enterprise In Accident

All three of the young men injured in an automobile accident on South Franklin street, Titusville at 2:10 a. m. Saturday were discharged from the Titusville Hospital later in the day. They were badly bruised and shaken when the Ford coupe in which they were riding crashed into the rear of a Willys sedan parked in front of the Tompkins Block, near the P. R. R. grade crossing that city.

Those in the Ford were Robert Watson, owner and believed to have been the driver of the car, Ray Baker and William Ducat, all of Route 2, Titusville, in the Enterprise community.

The car was being driven north on South Franklin street, says the Titusville Herald, evidently at a high rate of speed, when it hit the rear of a 1942 Willys American, owned by Mike Markovich and which was parked on the right side of the street. No one was in it.

The Willys was virtually thrown against the corner of the Brady House and also against a big utility pole at the corner of South Franklin and East Mechanics St.

The middle of the front bumper was bent back to the front axle, while the blow from the Ford and the collision with the pole demolished the body badly enough to make doubtful the possibility of repairing it.

The Ford was wrecked beyond repair and landed on the west side of the street facing the Brady House. The crash was loud enough to attract a large crowd even at that late hour.

Two of the injured boys were taken to the Titusville Hospital in ambulances from the Tracy and the Flanders-Arnold funeral homes and the third was taken in a private car.

While there was some fog, the visibility was approximately 300 feet at the time of the crash. The police did not obtain any statement from the young men.

Life Incomes at Retirement for General Electric Employees

Over 100,000 men and women already enrolled under new hundred-million-dollar General Electric Pension Program.

On July 10, 1946 General Electric announced an expanded pension program to give every employee at retirement the steady income everyone dreams of—but few ever manage to secure.

For the average employee this will mean a retirement income several times as large as the annuity he could ordinarily buy. Income at retirement, when added to Social Security payments, will amount to about 50% of average pay for the employee who has spent his working years with General Electric.

$100,000,000 to Start Plan

This plan provides a pension for the years already worked, at no cost to employees. For this, the company pays the entire cost, estimated at more than $100,000,000.

Thus every employee with over a year's service has a good start on his pension at retirement—at no cost to him. The longer he has worked, the bigger the sum.

To increase this retirement income as the years go on, employees and the company will jointly contribute to the fund. On the average, about two-thirds of future costs will be paid by the company.

Every Employee Eligible

Pensions are not new at General Electric. Retirement plans were begun as early as

About 90% of eligible G-E men and women have already signed up for Retirement income

Within eight weeks of the new pension program's announcement, some of General Electric's nearly one hundred plants in about seventy-five communities report the following enrollment:

Bridgeport, Conn. ....	90.8%
Ontario, Cal. ....	92.5%
Erie, Pa. ....	96.8%
Lynn, Mass. ....	97.0%
Schenectady, N. Y. ....	95.0%
Pittsfield, Mass. ....	94.0%
Philadelphia, Pa. ....	95.6%
New Kensington, Pa. ....	97.8%
Lowell, Mass. ....	96.4%
Cleveland, Ohio ....	91.1%

1912. Over 40,000 employees now on the payroll are already covered. The new plan brings pensions within reach of 100,000 more. Every employee is eligible the day he completes one full year of service.

General Electric's Objectives

Three objectives of General Electric are worth repeating:

For the public, new and better products at the fairest price that General Electric research and engineering can achieve.

For General Electric men and women, a better place to work—fair wages, steady employment, and "job dividends" for work well done.

For a quarter of a million owners, a fair return on the millions in savings they have invested.

"Job Dividends"

General Electric's "job dividends"—those extras that G-E employees get in addition to wages—now include among other things, pensions at retirement, insurance, vacations with pay, awards for achievement, etc. On such "job dividends" General Electric spent more than $35,000,000 for the year 1945.

This new pension program, from General Electric's point of view, is another way to encourage the capable and efficient men and women who aid in the company's success.

With their help, even greater benefits can be produced for all.

For additional details of the plan, those interested may write for the booklet, "General Electric Pension Plan." Address General Electric, Schenectady, N. Y.

TEACHERS' PAY

One out of every six school children in this country will be the victim of an incompetent teacher during the coming year. That is the estimate of Dr. Willard E. Givens, executive secretary of the National Education Association. The average parent might feel that Dr. Givens is conservative in his figure.

A principal reason for the large and rapidly increasing proportion of incompetent teachers, Dr. Givens says, is because we refuse to pay enough to get and keep good teachers.

School teaching has ceased to be an interim means of support for high school graduates waiting to be married. Today, even in the low grades, teaching demands professional training on top of a reasonably adequate general education. The cost of becoming a teacher, in time and money, is enough so that the profession is adopted generally as a career, not a filler.

And yet, a teacher with college training, after years of faithful work in the schools, often earns less than youngsters who have not even completed the grades can get in a factory.

The situation is dramatized by the troubles of Norwalk, Conn., where 225 of the city's 236 public school teachers have returned unsigned contracts, and demand that a higher pay scale be negotiated by the Board of Education with the Teachers' Association.

The current scale ranges from $1700 up to $3200. The teachers want a minimum of $2000 and a chance to work up to $4500. The Board of Education says that his would cost $300,000, which for Norwalk would require a tax increase of around $7 per person, or about $10 for a family of three.

There are thousands of small communities in which the present Norwalk scale would represent a bing income. Without passing judgment on the Connecticut situation, even by inference, it can be said that this is not true there.

Teaching is not an easy job. Given the basic education, the technical training, the willingness to keep always learning herself, the teacher must have that very rare attribute, the ability to pass on what she knows; she must have a world of patience, perseverance, imagination, sympathy, tact.

Not all teachers have all these, but all good teachers do. The ones who lack one or more of these qualities are part of the price we pay for not attracting and keeping the best in our schools.

We have been buying teachers' equipment, training and ability for peanuts, in most communities, because some folks like to teach, like to be with children, like the working conditions, enjoy the prestige that attaches to their job particularly in small communities.

But when the inflated living costs outstrip pegged salaries, when the teacher becomes convinced that he or she can live better on factory wage than on school salary, we lose our best teachers. In justice to our children, it is time we decided what we are going to do about the situation.

FORBIDDEN TURF

And then there is the one about the pretty brunette from Wilkes-Barre, Estelle Rice, who illegally and with malice aforesaid did sit on the grass in Central Park, New York. And along came a great, big cop, who pulled out his trusty pad and pencil and laboriously wrote a summons directing Miss Rice to appear in court and explain her anti-social attitude toward the New York grass. So Miss Rice spent $7.07 on round-trip fare, and appeared before a black-robed magistrate, who magnanimously suspended sentence and permitted her to go home without any interim in jail.

The young lady wants to come back to New York to live. She will be welcomed by everybody except the park police. But what a glutton for punishment!

PRICE LEVELS

In all the discussion about price levels to be established, if not maintained, by OPA, one fact is worth keeping clearly in mind: High prices do not cause inflation. Just the reverse. Inflation causes high prices.

Throughout our national history this nation has created the highest living standards in the world—that is, has built up the greatest buying power for the greatest number of persons—through mass production which forced sellers to compete for the patronage of buyers.

The surest way of getting low prices is to produce so much that manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers have to trim every cost and pare profits to the bone to cut a few pennies, here and there off prices. The big reason we must pay so much now is because there aren't enough producer goods to create a competitive market.

Washington Daybook

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — "Operation Goodwill" is having a jolly fine time in this country.

"Operation Goodwill" is the code word adopted by 230 young Royal Air Force fliers for their visit to the United States. They were invited over here to participate in the U. S. Army Air Forces Day program at Los Angeles.

A spokesman for the group said he believed the invitation to come see America and have a good time was a gesture toward repaying the Britishers for their hospitality to American men during the war.

WELL, they're having fun. The climate sort of knocked them out the first few days. They're not used to heat and humidity in England such as you find in Washington, Texas, New York and, yes—California.

They arrived in the United States in July, fair-skinned and a bit on the pale side. Now they are almost black from daily swims and sunbathing.

Most of the youngsters—their average age is between 22 and 23—had to work up to the big meals they're getting here. Diets are still pretty thin in England and the boys hadn't had steak dinners such as they found here in many a day.

They liked Hollywood, where they were entertained lavishly by blondes and bigwigs. A great many Hollywood beauties wrote their names on the 16 ships the boys came over in.

They never before had seen anything like the barbecue they went to in Texas. They don't have barbecues in England.

They had two big thrills during their visit in Washington. They flew over the White House and the Capitol building—the first to fly over the two structures since before the war. They had to get special permission to do this. They made a long-anticipated tour of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and talked with the G-man Chief J. Edgar Hoover.

Commanding officer of "Operation Goodwill" is Group Capt. Richard Collard. In his early thirties, of medium height and good-looking with fair curly hair and blue eyes, Capt. Collard was in the German prison camp, Stalag Luft 3.

He was commandant of the camp, appointed by the Germans. He was in charge of 17,000 imprisoned American, British and Russian aviation officers. It was the camp where there was the largest number of escape attempts. It is believed Collard organized most of these.

THE boys are rather shy and, as one of their own group said, "inclined to be stuffy," but once they catch on in a town they make many friends.

"We love the girls, but we aren't wolves," said this same chap.

The fliers are taking nylons to the girls back home. In San Antonio, Tex., an organized group of 160 British war brides arranged for a local shopkeeper to sell each flier one pair. The boys also bought cowboy outfits, cosmetics and toys—all impossible to get in their own country.

By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK—Milton Berle has been signed to stay at Nicky Blair's Carnival until December.

He started February 27 at $7,500 a week plus a percentage over a certain gross, which has kept his weekly take-home solidly perking along at $10,000 . . . before taxes of course. . . . Ann Sheridan spent a good deal of time on her latest New York visit trying to talk Tallulah Bankhead into appearing in her next pic, "Serenade." . . . They're suggesting Judy Canova for the Ethel Merman role when the pix get around to doing "Annie Get Your Gun," a bit of crackerbarrel casting I think would be a little silly, speaking as a staunch Merman fan from way back.

GENE LEONE, restaurant owner and part-time wit, says if a husband's words are sharp it's because he's been trying to get them in edgewise. . . . Milton Berle adds, in his nothing-sacred approach to any topic, that there's a "bumper crop" of pedestrians injured in auto accidents this year. . . . Joan Roberts had to turn down a London musical comedy offer. . . . She's having a baby. . . . Record fans have a constant frustration trying to find platters of obscure tunes which are fine musically or lyrically or both and whose absence of initial popularity is the reason no one ever put them on wax. . . . record companies do not want to waste their money on something which will stay on the shelf probably forever. . . . Through the years, however, there has arisen considerable demand for this sort of collectors' item recordings, and a new all time popular but nonetheless Jerome Kern piece shot right down the alley of the treated Kernites who have been trying for years to dig out the ones heard briefly in Kern and then buried in obscure Gotham Records, one of the firms jumping in where Columbia, Decca and other disc outfits have chosen to tread, has an album of Kern's "Society" pianists, (Sherrill with a simple accompaniment. . . . The album includes such really superb stuff as "All in Fun," "Try It," "Yesterdays," "The Folie Live on the Hill," "I've Got a Little Secret," "Let's Let You Couldn't Be Cuter," "I'm the Echo."

DURING the filming of the bomb picture, "The Beg of the End," one scientist as a technical expert got into a ribbing from Director man Taurag. . . . Taurag cal fellow in for a look at the reproduction of the Oak project, but the expert was asked, "Not enough mud, his comment. . . . He sug more mud, then more mud everyone decided no more could possibly be smeared. Taurag then took an old str placed it on the ground with expert's back was turned asked him, "Is there enough now?" . . . "Not enough," the expert. . . . "I don't see we can safely add more," Taurag, pointing at the hat look at that guy over there ing his lawn."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches only once they discover that a root cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excesses and wastes out of the blood. They help most people pass about a pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisons matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over half a century. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Gadget Class Graduates

Bright new graduates from the gadget class, which are less costly and easier to find than the perfect maid but are almost as proficient at polishing off chores, make post-war bids for the attention of party-minded women. Big boons to homes with laundry problems are transparent plastic tablecloth protectors. Because these are chiffon-thin and almost invisible when spread as a protective shield over a cloth, they guard fine linen, lace or gaily colored cloth from inevitable spills or marring without advertising their policing duties. With the protector laid over the table's most elegant cover, a wipe with a damp cloth removes any damaging bits and a clean cloth can be kept that way indefinitely. Starred on the list of gadgets are double-duty kitchen utensils that go from the stove to table with party airs and reduce the pile of "company" pots and pans that stack up in the sink. An interchangeable lid, a plan one for cooking, a fancy one for serving, enables these pans and pressure cookers of aluminum to put on their two-timing act. At the table, an electric broiler of decorative aluminum puts on the airs of a rare Sheffield service while it cooks the meat to a turn. Stainless Steel, another material that used to keep its place in the kitchen, now appears at the party table as flatware that gleams like choice old silver. This low-cost newcomer, designed with classic simplicity, wins the heart of the hostess because it does not tarnish and needs no last-minute polishing to bring out its high lustre.

Youngsville's 15th Fair To Open Wednesday, This Week

Youngsville, Sept. 2—The Secretary of Youngsville Fair Association report that all plans have been completed, and everything is now ready for the opening day for the Youngsville Fair, which will be Wednesday, Sept. 4th with 9 p. m. hour of closing the entry of exhibits.

Thursday the fair opens to the public at 9 a. m. with the judging of exhibits starting at 9:30 a. m. We are sorry to report that the Poultry Show announced has been canceled by order of the State Dept. of Agriculture. The reason given is the fact that a disease of poultry called Newcastle has been found in our state and the holding of poultry shows might spread this disease.

The rabbit show is however to be held with the judging on Friday instead of as first planned on Thursday. M. H. Samuels of Niles, Ohio, will be the judge. The Rabbit show promises to be large.

The flower shows promise to be very good. There are several classes of flower shows. Cut flowers and plants under the direction of Mrs. James Hamilton, chairman.

with Mrs. Bernice Goggin, co-chairman. The number of flowers in each exhibit is given in the fair book. The list given is long so there should be an exhibit from every garden in this vicinity. For more particulars inquire of the chairman. The local fair is sponsoring a show open to garden clubs only with prizes of $20.00, $15 and an award of $10.00 to any garden club bringing a good exhibit but not winning first or second place. Mrs. C. C. Johnson is chairman of the exhibit.

The local Brokenstraw Garden Club will give prizes of $2.00 and $1.00 for the best arrangement of fruit and vegetables in the grades and in the high school, a first and second prize for the grades and for the high school.

The horse shows are to be very fine with James Frantz, chairman. The concessions have been carefully chosen with a view to entertaining kiddies with a merry-go-round, kiddy ride and chair swing.

There will be exhibits and demonstrations of farm machines near the horse barns including a rotiller. Admission of 25 cents will be charged afternoon and evening of Friday and Saturday with a ticket for all sessions of 75c.

Iowa farmers had 569,000 horses and colts on their farms in 1945, largest number of any state in the Union.

Inter Squad Games of Dragons Held at Russell Field

Varsity Gets Long Gains To Give Them 36-Point Victory Over Seconds; Kane On Sat.

The Warren High School Dragon football squad went through a series of inter squad games at Russell Field yesterday afternoon with the blue and the white squads coming out in a 0-0 tie in the preliminary, the blues getting a 7-6 edge in the last minute of play in the second game, and the varsity, the whites, henceforth, pouring the seconds to a 36-0 count.

The boys in the preliminary games played fire ball with the pigskin shifting back and forth from one team to the other and from one end of the field to the other pretty evenly. The second game, the teams being coached by Joe Massa and Harry Hutchings, was a thriller. With the score 6 and 0, Creed Erickson took the ball for the extra point for the blues. He charged up to the goal line and was covered by a pyramid of bidders. They weaved back and forth with the opposition finally throwing him back, but the referee ruled that he was over before he was shoved back, giving the blues the win by one point.

The win by the varsity over the seconds is truly just what the score indicates, a walkaway, with the line opening large holes for big Ed Leonard, who incidentally scored four of the five touchdowns. Where there were no holes, Leonard proved very capable of making his own, while Duckett and Shanshals clicked off countless yards through tackles and completed five passes out of ten.

The teams started out pretty even, the ball shifting back and forth because the teams were unable to push enough for a first down. The seconds scored the initial first down of the game, the only one they got, through a 31 yard run around left end by Ralph Fischer. A loss and an incomplete pass due to the fast rushing Whites forced Fischer to punt down to the Reds twenty-four yards line.

On the first play Elmer Dutches rounded left end for a thirty yard gain, bringing the ball to the Reds forty-six. Ed Leonard clipped off tackle for nine more followed by a reverse from Dutches to Shanshals, who carried it to the six yard line around that vulnerable left end. Frankie carried it again, this time being stopped on the one yard line and Leonard took the ball over the center, standing. Dutches took the ball off tackle for the extra point. Later in the second period, the Whites again had the ball and clicked off the first downs through center and off tackle. Leonard took the ball over from the two followed by an off tackle plunge by Duckett for the point leaving the count at 14 and 0 at the half.

Al Brazle Takes Both Ends Of Double Bill For the Cardinals; Brooklyn Splits With Phillies

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
National League fans long may remember the 1946 pennant race as the "battle of the bullpens" with Manager Eddie Dyer of St. Louis uncovering Al Brazle as his latest relief ace to match Leo Durocher's crew of firemen.

The lean left-hander's greatest day of the season came yesterday when he received credit for both ends of a double win over Cincinnati, 6-4 and 8-7, although he, too, needed help from the bullpen in the late stages of the second game.

The twin victories re-established the Cards' lead at 2½ games because Brooklyn, after winning the opener from the Phillies, 5-2, ran afoul of Oscar Judd's left arm and dropped the 3-2 finale.

Walker Cooper was the big Durocher's crew of firemen.

The local Old-Timers journeyed to Jamestown for the return match of the annual Old-Timers games, the first this year being taken by the Warren team 17-13 at the State Hospital, only to lose to a superior Jamestown squad, 24-12, in the return match in Municipal Stadium, Jamestown's PONY League park Saturday night under the arcs.

The Warren aggregation, numbering twenty, all saw action, a good share of them taking turns on the mound and getting knocked off, promptly, and in order by the slugging Jamestown players. Ray Caldwell of the Jamestown team was on the bench, still recuperating as a result of last week's game, and McCullough of the local team is still nursing a bruise on his leg, picked up when he was hit by a pitched ball in the former game. "Pikey" Wright, 62-year-old local veteran of the diamond, was the oldest player and still showed plenty of spunk, smacking out three singles for three chances, which with his one for two in last Saturday's game makes him the best hitting old-timer on the Warren Club.

Sykesville Downs National Forge, 6-4, in 14 Innings Of Play; Last Home Contest

Fourteen solid innings of play at the State Hospital marked the last National Forge home game to be played this season when the Sykesville team took the locals for the second time of the season Saturday afternoon, 6-4.

There was much disagreement on the part of both teams due to some close and puzzling plays but the difficulty was straightened out and the teams got back into action.

Untereiner was the big hitter for the Forgers, collecting three hits and scoring three times for five times at bat. One of "Wild Bill's" hits was a triple.

The game was the longest one played by the Forgers in many moons and the restlessness of the players was evident.

Kolby, a 21-year-old Navy veteran, has compiled a 20-straight winning streak. In latest starts, the handsome local favorite defeated Whistlin' Willie Roach, here, and Del Cockayne, in Minneapolis. ## MARCONI CLUB TAKES FIRST SERIES TILT FROM THE SONS OF ITALY; NEXT GAME WED.

The evenly matched leading teams in the City Softball league met last night in the first in a series of playoff games at the West Side diamond for the championship of the league with the Marconi clubbers coming out on the long end of a 4-2 count. The teams have each won two games, the Marconi wins coming in the first half to give them the honors and the Sons of Italy wins coming in the second half, clinching that spot for them.

Both hurlers did some fine pitching, allowing only a minimum of hits to their opponents, but the feature player of the game was Bill Brown, center fielder for the Marconi players.

Billy snatched some far-reaching drives and liners and made some beautiful pegs to the bases to stiffen the backbone of his team.

The Marconi team took advantage of a base on balls and "Honkey" Font's overthrow to third base to score the first run of the game in the bottom of the second inning. Again in the fourth stanza they tallied one off a single by Check and Louie Vizza's double. Two runs in the seventh off an error, and singles by Dahlerson, Morrison, and Salerno ended the scoring for the winners while the Sons of Italy came back in the top of the eighth with two markers, but their rally was halted before they did too much harm.

The teams will meet on Wednesday and Friday for the final games of the series to see who will walk away with the beautiful Darling Jewelry trophy which is on display in their windows.
